

CYBER SECURITY ASSIGNMENT QUESTION

DAY 27

- 1. Explain the role of a load balancer in network architecture and discuss its benefits in ensuring high availability and scalability of web applications.

- 2. Define anti-malware tools and discuss their significance in protecting network infrastructure and endpoints against malicious software threats.

- 3. Describe common network assessment techniques used to evaluate the security posture and performance of network infrastructure.

- 4. Define threat hunting and threat intelligence and discuss their roles in proactive threat detection and response.

- 5. Explain the concepts of vulnerability assessment and configuration management and their roles in maintaining a secure and compliant network environment.